

PHOTOGRAPHY POLICY

Holiday Hill Christmas Tree Farm is a popular location for photography. We encourage our visitors to photograph our beautiful farm. Photography is allowed in areas open to the public. While we try to extend every consideration to individuals and groups wishing to photograph at Holiday Hill, photography must not interfere with normal operations or compromise the safety of our visitors, the quality of our farm, structures and other infrastructure. Please remember, this is private property. Photographers and their clients are permitted on our farm under the following guidelines:

Photography requires approval and must be scheduled in advance. Please let us know the time block of your stay.

Our insurance company asks that we know who is on the grounds and when, so please check in either in person, by email adougmillier@gmail.com or by calling (812) 249-2195. Please do NOT use facebook.

Blackout dates are November 18th through Christmas.

Flow along driveways and pathways must not be blocked at any time.

All areas must be left as they were found with nothing left behind.

Entrance fee must be paid by the photographer prior to the photographer's clients arriving at the farm.

Daily entrance fee as follows:

0 - 2 hours	$30
2-4 hours	$60
All day	$120

Please either mail payment to:

Holiday Hill Christmas Tree Farm 3021 E. Feree Dr. Terre Haute, IN 47802

Or drop your payment in the mailbox on the back of the barn.

It is our goal at Holiday Hill Christmas Tree Farm to encourage a fun and family, God honoring atmosphere. We hope that you can help us with that. It seems photography can mesh well with our business and we encourage you to come and enjoy the farm. We also strive to promote a positive attitude toward the live Christmas tree industry and we hope that you would join us there.
